

Web Developer Professional Work-Study

Fundamentals of CSS, CSS Pre-Processors, Frameworks, and Version Control Systems

Coursework due date and time: Sep 15, 2022 (Thursday), 11:59 pm

[] – Sanitize your CSS.

[] – Use semantic HTML

[] – Include The Title of your page

[] – Use anchor tags to your single page. When the menu is clicked, the user should be redirect to that session

[] – You should use Google Fonts to apply styling fonts

[] – You should use Google or Font awesome icons

[] – Build a responsive website.

[] – Mobile Version min-width: 300px

[] – Tablet Version min-width: 700px

[] – You are allowed to hide Mobile and Tablet menu

[] – Desktop Version min-width: 1000px

[] – Higher Version min-width: 1200px (It is not mandatory)

[] – As much as you use styling, more marks you will get

[] – The navigation menu should have a hover change.

[] – Remove the bullets

[] – You can also apply hover action into the Skills blocks

[] – Include Comments.

[] – The navigation through the page happens smoothly.

[] – Format your page properly.

- You should compress root your folder
- The root folder should contain an index.html page
- Images and CSS files should be placed in the correct folder
 - There is no need to provide your personal data. But try to use screenshots from your projects as pictures.
- The content from your coursework should be original. Do not include Lorem Ipsum text.
- You can download another logo from flaticon.com
- Your root folder should be called: "YourName_coursework_1"
- Your submission file should be .zip
- Do not include CSS styling inside your HTML document
- If you have any questions, talk to me during class. Or you can email me.